

[Brownell, Rozella Hart]

HUBBARDSVILLE
MRS. JOHN H. BROWNELL

Rozella Hart was born in Hubbardsville, Aug, 15, 1830, the daughter of Elias K. and Emily Hubbard Hart. She was the oldest of a family of four children, one brother of whom is living, Norval Demas Hart, of Mexico, N.Y. In 1852 she united in marriage with Nathan Brownell of Sherburne. Nearly her entire life has been spent here, with the exception of one year in Cleveland, O., when first married, and three years in Morrisville, 1868 to 1871. She was educated in the school of her home town and at Oxford Academy, Oxford, N.Y. Since the death of her husband, Feb. 26, 1902, she had made her home with her son, F. H. Brownell. In early life she united with the Universalist Church here and had since been staunch in her religion, working with untiring devotion for her church. For years she was a teacher of the primary class in the Sunday School, and was a regular attendant at church services as long as she was able. Mrs. Brownell was proud of her little home town and stood for all that was for the upbuilding and improving of the same. Relatives living besides the son, daughter and brother mentioned are three grandchildren, Mrs. O. E. Merrill of Syracuse, Laura Brownell Mahoney and Brownell Morgan of Madison; and four great-grandchildren: Betty, Marjory and Brownell Merrill of Syracuse, and Charlotte Louise Mahoney of Madison.

The Courier, Brookfield NY, Wed. 25 Jul 1923

Twenty-Five Years Ago

N. D. Hart was called to Hubbardsville, Madison county, by the death of his sister, Mrs. Nathan [Rozella Hart] Brownell, which occurred July 19th. The funeral occurred the following Sunday.

The Mexico Independent, Mexico NY, Thu. 29 Jul 1948