

[Bruff, Cornelia M. Crouch]

Sudden Death of an Estimable Woman at Her Home

Cornelia M., wife of James L. Bruff, died Wednesday night at the family residence, No. 47 Hamilton place, aged 41 years. She had been in poor health for some time, but her death was unexpected. Mrs. Bruff was the daughter of the late George W. Crouch and had for a number of years been active in the work of the First Universalist Church, of which she was a devoted member. She also took a great interest in the charitable work of the church and was a woman who was highly esteemed and who had a large circle of friends. As a wife and mother she was devoted, kind and loving.

Besides her husband the deceased leaves two sons, Monroe G. and Albert C. Bruff; two sisters, Sarah L. Crouch and Mrs. S. W. Hagaman, and two brothers, George W. Crouch, Jr., and Frank P. Crouch. The funeral will be held from the house at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and the burial will be private.
