

[Brusie, Edmund]

DEATHS.

Drowned, on Monday, the 2d of July last, while bathing in a mill-pond, Edmund, son of Andrus and Susan Brusie, aged 24 years. He was absent from home some twelve or fifteen miles on business. A numerous circle of relatives and friends are left to mourn his sudden death—still, we trust they “sorrow not as others which have no hope.” His funeral was attended on the third, when a numerous assemblage of neighbors and friends convened at his father’s house, to mingle their sympathies with the afflictions of their bereaved friends, and to witness the certain destiny of all human glory, and the end of all our sublunary enjoyments. The deceased was a member of the Universalist society of this town.
