

[Bucklin, Lucy E.]

LITTLE FALLS

Mrs. Lucy E. Bucklin died this morning at 8 o'clock at her home in Gansevoort street, after an extended illness. She was 83 years of age, and was the widow of J. H. Bucklin, who was one of this city's prominent residents. She is survived by one son, L. O. Bucklin, who is president of the Little Falls National Bank. Mrs. Bucklin was prominent in religious circles of the city and took an active interest in all charitable works. She was a devoted member of the St. Paul's Universalist Church.
