

[Bullock, Awilda E.]

At the home of a niece, Mrs. Cora Edwards, in Newport, occurred the death of Miss Awilda E. Bullock, a native of Stratford. She was born April 24, 1846. For many years she was engaged in the millinery business in Joliet, Ill., and then in Wichita, Kans., returning East about 15 years ago, living in this village for a short period and later in Herkimer, from where she went to make her home in Newport. Deceased always liked to travel and when all alone undertook a trip to California and visited the cities, where she was acquainted. She was the sister of the late Alonzo Bullock.

Her survivors are George Bullock, Mrs. George Pream and Mrs. Emma Mosher of Dolgeville, with other nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Edwards, Rev. W.H. [Wines Harris] Skeels of the Herkimer Universalist church, of which she was a member, officiating. Interment was made in the local cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Mon. 28 Mar 1932

Transcribed on 3 Dec 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY