

[Burch, Lottie E. Sherman]

Death of Mrs. Burch After Week's Illness

Mrs. Lottie E. Burch, widow of William Burch, died Thursday morning after an illness of a week following a shock [stroke], at her home, 133½ Clinton avenue. The funeral will be held there Saturday morning at 11 o'clock with the Rev. G. [Gustav] H. Ulrich of the Universalist church officiating.

She was a member and regular attendant of the Universalist church and its Aid society.

Mrs. Burch was born in Dresserville, March 14, 1861, daughter of Bruce and Hannah Sherman. She has been a resident of Cortland the past 22 years, her husband dying on November 20, 1928. Burial will be in Rural cemetery.

A daughter, Mrs. L. C. Weaver of Polkville, and a son, Howard, of Binghamton, survive.
