

[Burdick, George Edward]

George E. Burdick

George Edward Burdick, aged 74 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leo Davis of Davis Hill road, January 12, 1927, after a short illness from shock and exposure.

Mr. Burdick, who for many years past had been a familiar figure in the village where he had operated a draying service for the business, was found in his home some ten days ago in a bad condition due to having evidently suffered a shock [stroke] during the night and having suffered from lack of heat in his home until a neighbor discovered his plight and secured help.

Deceased lingered some eight days after having been taken to the Davis home.

The funeral was held from the Whitesville Universalist Church, Friday, Jan. 14, 1927, Rev. R. S. Kellerman officiating. Burial in Rural Cemetery.

Mr. Burdick was married to Elva Lee at Independence by the late Rev. Jared Kenyon, forty-nine years ago and to them were born the following children: L. D. Burdick of Canisteo, N.Y., Mrs. Leo B. Davis of Davis Hill and Mrs. Otis Butler of Genesee, Pa., all of whom survive. Mrs. Burdick died some twenty-seven years ago.

Relatives and friends attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Burdick and son Donald, also Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Burdick of Canisteo, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Burdick of Elm Valley, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr of Andover.

---

Card of Thanks

we wish to thank all the neighbors and friends who assisted us during the illness and death of our father, also those who furnished cars, music, and flowers, and especially Rev. Kellerman for his words of comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Burdick and Family
Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Davis and Family
Mr. and Mrs. Otis Butler and Family

Whitesville News, Whitesville NY, Thu. 20 Jan 1927