

[Burgert, Martha Chittenden]

BURGERT—At Brooklyn, N.Y., April 3, 1908. Martha Chittenden Burgert, widow of George Burgert, formerly of Chittenden Falls, Columbia county, N.Y.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BURGERT

The funeral services of Mrs. Martha Chittenden Burgert were held from the Universalist church yesterday afternoon, Rev. G. D. [George Delbert] Walker officiating. Miss Maude Fritts sang two solos with much expression. She was accompanied by Mrs. Morris Van de Bogart on the organ.

Mrs. Burgert lived many years in this city and was a loyal member of the Universalist church here. Her father and husband were prominent citizens of Chittenden Falls, the place being named for her father, who built a Universalist church there.

Mrs. Burgert had known many reverses and sorrows. She was a devoted mother and passed the later years of her life with her daughter, Mrs. Dora Whitney, who cared for her tenderly. Mrs. Whitney and a grandson, Fred B. Plass, came to Hudson with their dead. They have now returned to their Brooklyn home. Mrs. Burgert leaves two other grandchildren. Mrs. Burgert's family affection was very deep, and she will be greatly missed by the loved ones left on earth; but surely there are many of her dear ones gone before who welcome her to "the land that is fairer than day."

Columbia Republican, Hudson NY, Fri. 10 Apr 1908