

[Burnside, Samuel S.]

OTSEGO COUNTY

—Samuel S. Burnside, a prominent citizen of Oneonta and member of the county bar for many years, died there Thursday, aged 70. Under the old military law, he was a major general. In 1865, as the nominee of the democratic party for the assembly, he was defeated by Sheffield Harrington, of Hartwick. He has held many town offices, and at the time of his death was president of the Oneonta board of education. The funeral, which will be to-day at 1, will be conducted by Rev. D. Ballou of Utica. General Burnside was all his life a Universalist.

Morning Herald, Utica NY, Sat. 21 Aug 1880

Transcribed on 8 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY