

[Burroughs, Susan White Burr]

MRS. S. BURROUGHS DIES

Mrs. Susan White Burroughs, (78?) years old, widow of James Burroughs, one of the earliest members of All Souls Universalist Church, Ocean and Ditmas aves., died on Monday of old age at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Augusta Cobb, 319 Lincoln road, Flatbush. Her funeral services this evening will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Potterton, pastor of the Universalist Church of Our Father, of which the latter part of her lifetime Mrs. Burroughs had been a member, and the interment tomorrow will be in Cypress Hills Cemetery. Mrs. Burroughs was born in New York City and came to old Williamsburg at the age of 12 years. Her husband was a carpenter and builder and lived to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Burroughs joined All Souls Church when it was on Wythe ave., and continued her membership until the congregation followed the trend of removals from the Eastern District to Flatbush. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mary L. May, Mrs. Cobb and Miss Susan M. Burroughs; three grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Abbie A. Gritman, the widow of George W. Gritman; and a nephew, Arthur Gritman, a real estate dealer of Broadway.
