

[Bush, Emily Chase]

MRS. EMILY BUSH

Emily Chase, wife of the late Isaac Bush, died Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Delos Walker. Mrs. Bush had been in failing health for many years but her final sickness was of only a few days' duration. The funeral was held Wednesday at two o'clock, the Rev. Louis Robinson conducting the services, and interment was made in the family plot at the Richfield cemetery.

Mrs. Bush was born January 16th, 1834 at Burlington, the daughter of Willet and Eliza Herrington Chase. She was married in 1854 to Isaac Bush, who died in 1877. She was a member of the Universalist church and as long as health permitted was very active in all church work.

The survivors are the daughter mentioned above; one son, Fred C. of Middleport, N.Y.; three sisters, Mrs. Almira Chase of Gurnee, Ill., Mrs. Oliver Perkins of Crowley, La., and Miss Ann Chase of Williamsville, N.Y.; also eleven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
