

[Butler, Alice Kellogg]

Mrs. Alice Kellogg Butler

Mrs. Alice Kellogg Butler, 93, passed away Friday morning, April 19, 1946. She was born March 3, 1853, in the Town of Groton, Tompkins county, moving when a child to Allegany county. On Sept. 19, 1870 she was married to Luther Butler who died in June 1930. In 1919 they moved to Yates county near Milo Center where they lived until Mr. Butler's death, when she moved to Milo Center, where she made her home until 1942.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Frank Wager of Benton Center and Mrs. Jessie Harris; a third daughter, Mrs. Lelia Briggs died Oct. 13, 1944; six grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two great great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. For the past five years there have been five generations of the family living: Mrs. Butler; her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wager; her grandson, Forrest Wager; great-grandson, Robert Wager and great-great grandchildren, Jean and Philip Wager.

She was a member of the Whitesville Universalist church. Services were held from the Sargeant Funeral Home in Dundee, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Rev. Benjamin Disbrow, pastor of the Wayne Baptist church, officiatin. Burial was in Whitesville cemetery.

Chronicle-Express, Penn Yan NY, Thu. 25 Apr 1946

Transcribed on 3 Jan 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY