ANSON B. BUTLER PASSES AT MORLEY

Anson B. Butler, for more than fifty years a resident of Morley, where he engaged as a blacksmith, passed away Sunday at 3 in the afternoon, aged seventy-eight years. Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30, the Rev. Hugh S. Tigner, pastor of the First Universalist Church of Canton, officiating.

Mr. Butler was very well known and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of his death. He leaves a widow; a daughter, Lena; a sister, Mrs. Ella Farmer, of Madrid, and two brothers, Dr. Stuart Butler of Poland, N.Y., and the Rev. Benj. F. Butler of Seneca Castle. The latter is a graduate of Canton Theological School, and a minister of the Universalist Church.
