

[Button, Martin Luther]

Funeral of Martin L. Button to be Held To-morrow at Cicero

The funeral of Martin Luther Button, 84, who died suddenly yesterday at the home of his son, William O. Button, No. 1010 Wolf street, will be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at the Universalist Church at Cicero.

Mr. Button had been in good health almost up to the moment of his death, having gone to the polls Tuesday to vote the Republican ticket, as was his custom. He was born at Sangerfield January 2, 1829, and until six years ago lived at Cicero. He then came to this city. He is survived by two sons, William O. and Edwin M. Button; one granddaughter, Bertha E. Button, and a brother, J. R. Button.
