

[Calhoun, Chauncey]

[Died] In this village, 31 July 1856, Mr. Chauncey Calhoun, aged 80 years. Mr. Calhoun was one of the early settlers in this village; one of the principal founders of the Universalist Society... His worthy companion with whom he has sojourned 55 years of his mortal pilgrimage [will] ever fondly cherish his memory.

New York Reformer, Watertown NY, 14 Aug 1856

DEATHS

In Watertown, Jeff. [Jefferson] Co., N.Y., Mr. CHAUNCY CALHOUN, aged 80 years. Br. C. was one of the early settlers in this village; one of the principal founders of the Universalist Society; a man of principle and integrity, whose life uniformly illustrated his religious faith, which was the result of patient, careful scriptural investigation. His "trust in the living God who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe" was confirmed and unshaken amidst the changes of life and the perils of death. Patient and cheerful in sickness, he passed to his long home in peace. His worthy companion with whom he has sojourned 55 years of his mortal pilgrimage, his children, grand children, kindred and many friends will ever fondly cherish his memory. His obsequies were very numerously attended on the 3d inst., and the services performed by his sincere friend,

P. M. [Rev. Pitt Morse]

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 23 Aug 1856
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 11 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY