

[Caney, Irving E.]

Irving E. Caney

The death of Irving E. Caney occurred at his home on the Fenimore Farm at 8 o'clock Sunday night, as the result of an attack of pneumonia from which he had been suffering for some time. Mr. Caney was born in the town of New Lisbon and would have been fifty-three years of age if he had lived until next April. For the past twenty-five years he had been a faithful and competent employee of Edward Severin Clark at the Fenimore Farm. His death removes a man highly respected by all.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. George [Ellen Young] Caney; his wife [Almeda Barnum Caney]; a daughter, Catherine D., a son, Robert; two sisters, Mrs. William Weatherby [prob. spelled Weatherbee] of Richfield Springs, and Miss Ina Caney, who resided at home, and two brothers, George D. Caney and Arthur Caney, both of Richfield Springs.

The funeral was held at the house at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. George Wilson Scudder, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating, with interment in Lakewood cemetery.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 13 Jan 1911

Transcribed on 19 Feb 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY