

[Card, Josephine Amanda Carr]

MRS. GEORGE CARD PNEUMONIA VICTIM
Funeral Services Wednesday Morning in Cortland; Burial Homer

Mrs. Josephine Amanda Card, 85, widow of the late George Card, died Monday morning at the Cortland Hospital, where she was taken Sunday, suffering with pneumonia.

She was born in Cortland County at the old toll gate on the plank road between Truxton and Cortland, July 18, 1854, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carr. She married George Card November 28, 1878. Three children, Everett, Albert and Florence, were born to them and have since died. Mr. Card died at his home, 56 James Street, in January 1937.

Two grandchildren, Alva and Everett Donaldson of Detroit, survive. Mrs. Card was a member of the Universalist Church, Rebekah Lodge and Daughters of the American Revolution in Watertown.

Mrs. Card broke up her home in James Street, just two weeks ago yesterday, and went to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Feron Corl, 16 Water Street.

The funeral will be held at 10:30 Wednesday morning at Earle Wright's funeral home in Cortland. Rev. Edward Downey, pastor of the Universalist Church in Cortland, will officiate. Burial will be made in the Glenwood Cemetery.

Cortland Standard, Cortland NY, Tue. 12 Dec 1939

Transcribed on 21 Oct 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY