

[Carline, Merribeth Wilkinson]

MRS. CHARLES CARLINE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Merribeth Wilkinson Carline, wife of Charles J. Carline, died about 12:30 Sunday afternoon at her home, 35 Lincoln Street, after a long illness from Bright's Disease. She had been confined to her bed over a year. Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. today at the home, Rev. H. Philbrook Morrell of the Canton Theological School, officiating. Burial will be made in White Church Cemetery, Crary Mills.

Mrs. Carline was born at Potsdam, April 11, 1876, only daughter of Charles and Alice Stone Wilkinson. She was married at Potsdam Oct. 23, 1901, to Charles J. Carline. For several years, they lived on a farm in Potsdam; and then moved to Harrisville. About ten years ago, they came to Canton and have since resided here. She was a member of the First Universalist Church.

Surviving are her husband; six children, Mrs. Robert Hill, West Stockholm; Mrs. Rollin Purvee and Mrs. Forrest Goodale, Canton; Dean, Leon and Isabelle Carline, Canton; an aunt, Mrs. Sophia Carey, Black River; uncle, Grant Carey, Natural Bridge, also nieces and nephews.

Commercial Advertiser, Canton NY, Tue. 8 Sep 1936

Transcribed on 15 Jun 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY