

[Carpenter, A. Lincoln]

A. LINCOLN CARPENTER

OCEAN GROVE, N.J., March 24—A. Lincoln Carpenter, formerly a resident of Mount Vernon for 19 years, where he was superintendent and trustee of the Universalist Church for many years, died suddenly Thursday at his home, 55 New York Avenue. For 38 years he had been associated with the Fall River line of steamers, retiring three years ago as chief rate clerk.

Mr. Carpenter was a member of the New York Society of Friends and of Ocean Grove Lodge, F. and A. M. Funeral services will be conducted under auspices of the Friends Society tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at his late home. Private interment will be made Monday at the convenience of the family in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Born in New York City, Mr. Carpenter was the son of the late Robert and Hannah W. Carpenter. His wife died five years ago. Surviving are two daughters, the Misses Hope and Edna Carpenter, residing at home; and a brother, Elwood Carpenter, Mount Dora, Fla., and Bridgewater, Conn.
