

[Carroll, Cora Bell Maxfield]

Mrs. William F. Carroll

At 7:55 o'clock last Thursday evening occurred the death of Mrs. William F. Carroll, aged 47 years, formerly Cora Bell Maxfield of Fort Plain. She had been in ill health about three years. The deceased was an attendant of the Universalist church. She had made her home for the past twelve years at Roselle, N.J., where she won the high esteem of all who knew her. A wide circle of friends and relatives mourn her loss. She is survived by her husband, William F. Carroll; her father, Martin Maxfield, and sister, Mrs. John D. Burke of Fort Plain. The deceased was brought here on the 6:38 train Saturday and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the Catherine Nellis Memorial chapel. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. H. [Herbert] F. Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church.

Fort Plain Standard, Fort Plain NY, Thu. 23 Dec 1915

Transcribed on 4 Jun 2017 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY