

[Cary, William E.]

WILLIAM E. CARY

Dolgeville—William E. Cary, 93, died Jan. 24, 1953 at his home, S. Faville. He had been in failing health for several years.

Mr. Cary was born Oct. 10, 1859 in the town of New Baltimore, Greene County. He was a son of William S. and Freelove Armstrong Cary. He had been a resident of Dolgeville for the past 60 years. Mr. Cary married Zula [sic] Vincent, Dec. 6, 1882. She died in 1940. The deceased was employed by the Daniel Green slipper factory for many years and retired in (1936?). He was a member of the Universalist Church.

Surviving is a daughter, Miss Glenn Z. Cary, Dolgeville; a sister, Mrs. Ruby Harden, Schenectady; three nieces and one nephew.

The funeral will be at 1:30 tomorrow from the Moore Funeral Home with the Rev. Gale Bascomb officiating. The body will be placed in the Dolgeville Cemetery receiving vault.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Mon. 26 Jan 1953

Transcribed on 15 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY