

[Case, Arethusa Park]

West Bloomfield, N.Y.— On Monday occurred the death of Mrs. Arethusa Case, wife of Ralph O. Case, after a lingering illness. For a long time Mrs. Case had not been well, but her strong will power kept her up and doing, meeting and receiving her friends with her bright, cheerful manner, and concealing the effort it was for her to do so. Besides her immediate family, a large circle of friends will mourn her loss. Mrs. Case, formerly Miss Arethusa Park, of Bristol, was married to Ralph Case 37 years ago. She was a very ardent and faithful member of the Universalist church at Bristol, and was for years leader of the church choir and chorister of the Sunday school. She had held the offices of president and treasurer of the Ladies Aid society, and as long as her health permitted went back to attend her church. Her funeral was held from the Universalist church at Bristol yesterday at 11 a.m. Rev. L. D. Boynton, her former pastor, officiated. She was 61 years of age and leaves besides her husband, three children, Mrs. Seymour Reed, of White Stone, L. I., P. W. Case and Miss Vera Case, of this town; also two sisters, one of Jackson, Mich., and one at Canandaigua, and one brother who resides at Waterloo.
