

[Case, Billings H.]

Services Saturday for Billings H. Case, Well Known Resident

Bristol—Funeral services were held at 2 Saturday afternoon for Billings H. Case, who died unexpectedly Wednesday morning following a long period of failing health.

He was born in Bristol Dec. 7, 1889, the only son of Preston and Lydia Guernsey Case. When he was very young the family moved to Batavia, returning to settle on a farm here in 1900.

In 1912 he married Elsie Murray and they resided in Canandaigua for several years, later buying the farm of her girlhood home, where they have since lived.

Mr. Case was a talented musician, playing in bands and orchestras in this and surrounding areas for many years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Theda Hafner of Rochester and Mrs. Thomas Oliver of Aloquin; a grandson and a niece, Mrs. Elmer Anderson of Rochester.

Rev. Harry M. Wright, pastor emeritus, and Rev. Lewis Scott, pastor of the Universalist church, officiated at the services and interment was in Evergreen cemetery.
