

[Case, Leora]

OBITUARIES

MISS LEORA M. CASE, York State Manor, 155 Waldorf Pkwy., a retired teacher, died September 16 in Crouse-Irving Memorial Hospital. She was 78.

Miss Case graduated from Syracuse University in 1920 and went on to York University, studying in the Graduate School. She was a teacher of English. She was a member of the faculties of Pulaski High School and Canandaigua Academy. She retired from UFA in 1957.

Miss Case had lived with Miss M. Gladys Medbury in various locales including York State Manor, since 1920.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mabel Gwilt of South Onondaga, and several nieces and nephews.

A member of various educational, cultural and civic organizations throughout her life, Miss Case was a member of First Universalist Church of Syracuse. She was also a member of the Retired Teachers Association.

Services were held September 18 at the Norris Funeral Home in Marcellus. The Rev. Charles Howe [of the Universalist Church] officiated.

Press-Observer, Marcellus NY, Wed. 25 Sep 1974

Transcribed on 9 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY