MRS. LUCY CASE, 77, DIES SATURDAY AT CHAUMONT HOME

Mrs. Lucy Weaver Case, 77, widow of Lynn Case, died at her home near Chaumont at 11 Saturday morning. She had been in ill health about three years.

She was born on the Weaver homestead near Brownville on April 2, 1866, the daughter of Philip and Electa Hunt Weaver. On October 31, 1883, she was married to Lynn Case by Rev. Luther Rice.

The couple had lived all their married life on the farm where she died. Mr. Case died about three years ago.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Florence Gonseth, Chaumont; a son, Roy J. Case, Chaumont; three grandsons, Floyd Gonseth, Limerick; Glenn Gonseth, Cape Vincent, and Pfc. Lynn Gonseth, Camp Blandinig, Fla.; three granddaughters, Miss Korleen Gonseth, Watertown; Mrs. Leo Pigage, West Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Gordon Torrey, Syracuse; a brother, Martin Weaver, Chaumont, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the home at 2 Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Harold Niles, pastor of the Watertown Universalist church, officiating. Burial was in the Brownville cemetery.
