

[Casey, Gertrude Ingley]

Mrs. Robert A. Casey

The death of Mrs. Robert A. Casey, aged 65 years, occurred at her home in this village, Saturday, December 18, 1937 at 8:30 p.m., following a relapse from Grippe, that developed into bronchial pneumonia in turn aggravated by asthma.

Gertrude Ingley, daughter of the late Loren and Else Ingley was born at Wileysville, N.Y. She was united in marriage to Robert A. Casey August 26, 1891 at Harrison Valley, Pa., by Rev. Clough. For many years they resided on the farm in Crittenden District, but 18 years ago they moved to Whitesville.

Surviving are the husband and two sisters, Mrs. B. E. Heselton and Mrs. Dow Scribner, one niece, Mrs. Howard H. Barney and a nephew, Alton Scribner. An aged uncle, F. D. Watkins of Greenwood also survives.

The funeral was Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 21, 1937 at 2 o'clock from the home with Rev. C. E. Swearingen of the Methodist Church officiating and Fred Wildman directing. Interment was in Rural Cemetery.

Mrs. Casey was an active member of the Universalist Church, the Ladies' Aid and Choir of that Society as long as it existed. She was of a genial nature, a loving wife, sister and neighbor, who will be keenly missed by all who knew her.

Everything possible was done to save her life but to no avail.

The sympathy of the community is extended Mr. Casey and the sisters in their loss.

Among the relatives and friends from a distance who attended the farewell service Tuesday were F. D. Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Dever Stephens of Greenwood; Mildred, Julia and Clarence Osmin of Rexville; Mrs Bessie Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Atkins of Hornell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atkins of Canisteo; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Slaight, Mrs. Gertrude Potter, Will Cronk and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pease of Andover; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Updyke and Miss Emily Barney of West Union.
