Mrs. Eda [Ada] Casler Dies at Daughter's Home

Mrs. Eda [Ada] Chester Casler died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grover C. Ingersoll, 332 N. Prospect St., after a long illness.

Mrs. Casler was born in the Town of Danube, a daughter of John E. and Lucy Vincent Quackenbush, and was educated in Little Falls schools. She was married to John F. Chester, Little Falls, who died in 1890, and later to Charles Casler.

After residing in Little Falls, she came to Herkimer 25 years ago to make her home with her daughter. She was a member of the Universalist Church.

In addition to her daughter, she leaves one granddaughter, Mrs. Reynold Doerer, Delmar, N.Y.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday from the Ingersoll home, with the Rev. Stanley C. Stall, Universalist minister, officiating and burial in Fairview Cemetery, Little Falls.
