

[Casler, Bertram W.]

BERTRAM W. CASLER

Little Falls—Bertram W. Casler, 81, of 91 Church St., died Apr. 16, 1952 in Little Falls Hospital. He had been ill for the past two months.

Born in Little Falls Oct. 20, 1870, he was the son of Richard W. and Charlotte Shepard Casler. His wife, the former Charlotte Talbot, died in 1918. A member of the Universalist Church and the Royal Arcanum, he was at one time assessor for the City of Little Falls.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Domenick and Mrs. Glenn R. Waltamath, both of Little Falls, and Mrs. Lester Tuttle, Watertown; and three sons, Lynn, Teaneck, N.J., Fred, Little Falls, and Bertram W. Casler, Jr., Albany; five brothers, Richard and Watts, Utica; Lou, Minoa; John, Little Falls, and James, Shanghai, China; two sisters, Mrs. John Leek, Lassellsville, and Mrs. Vida Van Horne, Binghamton.

The Rev. Howard B. Gilman, pastor of the Universalist Church, will conduct the funeral at 2 today from the Upright Funeral Home, 8 Ward St. Burial will be made in Church St. Cemetery.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Sat. 19 Apr 1952

Transcribed on 7 Mar 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY