MRS. CORA CASLER

Little Falls—Mrs. Cora Casler, 67, widow of Ira W. Casler and a prominent resident of the town of Danube, died in the local hospital Mar. 7, 1942.

She had been confined to the hospital since Monday. Death was due to heart disease.

She was born in the Town of Danube, a daughter of Joseph and Mary Meisse Rice. On Feb. 27, 1895 she was married to Ira W. Casler by Dr. Richard Eddy Sykes, president emeritus of St. Lawrence University, and at that time pastor of the Universalist church in this city.

Mrs. Casler was prominently identified with both the state Grange and the Pomona Grange and had held various offices in the latter. She was a member of the Newville church.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. H. Howard Maxfield, with whom she resided, and a brother, Charles Rice, Watertown.

The funeral will be tomorrow afternoon from the home, the Rev. Howard Gilman, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. The body will be placed in the vault at Oak Hill Cemetery, Herkimer.
