

[Casler, Seward]

Seward Casler

Fort Plain, Oct. 4—Seward Casler, aged 65, died at his home at Brookman's Corners at 8:45 o'clock Thursday evening after a lingering illness of a complication of diseases. He was born in the town of Minden, April 7, 1864, the son of the late Peter and Elizabeth Wiles Casler. Mr. Casler was a member of Mohawk Valley lodge, No. 66, Knights of Pythias. He was a farmer by occupation and was so engaged until ill-health forced his retirement.

Surviving Mr. Casler are his wife [Mary E. Nugent Casler]; one daughter, Mrs. Lynn Cronkhite; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Barnum [Varnum] Casler of Brookman's Corners; four grandsons, Gerald, Barnum [Varnum], [and] Warren Casler and George Cronkhite; two sisters, Miss Catherine Casler of Fort Plain and Mrs. Fenton Ottman of Lykers.

The funeral service, in charge of the Knights of Pythias lodge, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, the Rev. Rufus Dicks [Dix], pastor of the Universalist church of Fort Plain, officiating. Burial will be in the Fort Plain cemetery.
