

[Chaney, Nathan P.]

N. P. CHANEY

Passes Away at His Home After a Long Illness

Nathan P. Chaney, long a well known business man in this city, died Friday evening at his home, 88 Massachusetts avenue. Mr. Chaney had been in failing health for a long time, and his condition had been considered serious for upwards of two years. Nathan P. Chaney was born in Orange, Mass., August 25, 1839. At an early age he went to St. Lawrence County, this State, and took up his residence in Potsdam. He received his education in that place and then entered business. He was in the bed and bedding business in Potsdam for a number of years. Twenty three years ago he came to this city and conducted a successful business on Main street until eight years ago when ill health forced his retirement and he transferred his interests to other hands.

Mr. Chaney was a member of the Masonic fraternity in Potsdam, but had not associated himself with any of the local organizations. He was a man of genial personality and had many friends. He was a trustee of Grace Universalist Church.

He married, about forty years ago, Miss Caroline Wheeler, of Potsdam, who survives him with one daughter, Mrs. H. Philbrook Morrell, of this city.—
Buffalo News.

Herald-Recorder, Potsdam NY, Fri. 19 Jul 1907

Transcribed on 10 Jun 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY