

[Chase, Jonathan Ingersoll]

Deaths.

Of bronchial consumption, in Fairport, Jan. 1st, J. Ingersoll Chase, son of Rev. Jacob Chase, in the 35th year of his age... Unpretending and unassuming in manner, peculiarly generous in all his relations, perhaps over-lenient in his business transactions, and combining that genial, hearty spirit which showed him to take delight in having others share all that he himself enjoyed, it is with deep sorrow that he was bidden farewell. His short sickness was attended with terrible pain; yet he was a patient sufferer, and his trust in the over-ruling goodness of God sustained and soothed him to the last. He leaves an amiable wife [Julia] and three young children, with a circle of dear kindred to mourn the loss... The kindly interest with which the deceased was held was attested by a large attendance at his funeral services in the Universalist Church in Fairport.

C. H. D. [Rev. Charles A. Dutton]

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, 21 Jul 1860
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 5 Dec 2007 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY