

[Chrisman, Louis P.]

LOUIS CHRISMAN DIES ON SATURDAY

Louis P. Chrisman, 67, of 129 Central Ave., died on Saturday at the Cortland Memorial Hospital. He was an employee of the Cortland Line Company until a few years ago.

Born in Lisle, N.Y. on April 20, 1887, Mr. Chrisman had lived in Cortland for about 40 years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Jennie Bradbury Chrisman, and one son, Louis Chrisman, both of the Central Ave. address; three daughters, Mrs. Glenna McClure of Syracuse, Mrs. Louise Parsons of Cortland, and Mrs. Helen Gillette of Conklin, N.Y.; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Muskovin of Homer, Mrs. Helen Jennings of Syracuse and Mrs. Clara Richardson of Binghamton, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the McAndrew Funeral Home at 3:30 p.m. this afternoon. The Rev. Max A. Coots, pastor of the First Universalist Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Cortland Rural Cemetery.

Cortland Standard, Cortland NY, Mon. 7 Mar 1955

Transcribed on 14 Oct 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY