

[Church, Nettie Bryan]

Deaths

Mrs. Albert M. Church

The death of Mrs. Nettie E. Church, widow of Albert M. Church, occurred about five o'clock last Thursday afternoon, December 8, at her home on White street. She had been in failing health for several years.

Mrs. Church was born in Clarendon, March 10, 1845, the daughter of Joseph A. and Rebecca Millard Bryan, and the greater part of her life was spent in that town. In 1863 she was united in marriage to Albert M. Church, also of Clarendon, who passed away many years ago [in 1890].

She is survived by one son, Albert B. Church of Holley, and a number of nieces and nephews. Her only sister, Mrs. Ida Bryan Salisbury, passed away on January 25 last.

Funeral services were held from the home of her niece, Mrs. William B. Webster, on VanBuren street Saturday afternoon, Rev. L. H. Robinson, pastor of the Pullman Memorial Universalist church of Albion, officiating. Interment was made in the family lot at Hillside cemetery.
