

[Clark, Roseltha Dezetter]

Clarendon

Mrs. Wm. Clark (nee Miss Roseltha Dezetter) died on the 16th inst. at the residence of Mr. Fred Bird, of quick consumption. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were married on the 19th of last December, and had just returned home from a pleasant wedding trip through the western states, and having purchased a large farm in the town of Byron, were preparing to move upon the same the first of April. About three weeks before her death she was taken sick, after which she failed very fast until she expired. The grief of their many friends go with the bereaved groom, to his disconsolate home, which but a short time ago was surrounded with sunshine but is now deeply shrouded in gloom. The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. Fred Dezetter on Monday the 19th inst., the Rev. F. [Francis] B. Peck [Universalist] officiating. It was just three months to a day since the marriage ceremony was performed by the above clergyman. A large concourse assembled to pay their last respects to a dear friend.

Holley Standard, Holley NY, Thu. 29 Mar 1888

Transcribed on 7 Jan 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY