

[Clift, Joab L.]

DEATH OF JOAB CLIFT.

Joab L. Clift, who has been in failing health for three months, died at his home in the town of Sennett early yesterday morning. Mr. Clift was one of the thrifty, reliable farmers of the country, and a man highly respected by the people in the community in which he resided. For over 20 years he was a justice of the peace, and was a member of the Universalist church of Mottville for many years. His entire life during a period of over 80 years has been lived in Sennett, and for 57 years and since his marriage to Mary Leonard 57 years ago, has resided on the Leonard homestead, where he died. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. L. B. Fitch, of Skaneateles, and Clara E. Clift, of Sennett. One brother, Myron Clift, of Burlington, Kansas, and one sister, Mrs. Edward Abeel, of Brooklyn, also survive.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. O. [Ora] M. Hilton, will be held at the house on Thursday afternoon next at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be at the Skaneateles cemetery.
