

[Coe, Flavius C.]

Sudden Death Due to Heart Failure
Well Known Resident of South Livonia Passes Away
—Had Acquired Large Property

Livonia, Feb. 10—Flavius C. Coe died very suddenly yesterday at the family home in South Livonia. By his death Livonia has lost one of its oldest and best known citizens. He was apparently in his usual health, had just come in from outdoors and was warming himself at the radiator when he fell to the floor. Heart failure is supposed to be the cause.

Mr. Coe was born and had spent his entire life at South Livonia, being one of the large family of John C. Coe, of which only two remain; one brother, A. D. Coe, of Conesus, and one sister, Mrs. P. G. [Louise] Frutchey of South Livonia.

For a number of years he was supervisor of the town. He was a bright and shrewd business man, having accumulated a large property and owning several homes and business places. He found much pleasure in planning improvements for his own property and for the advancement of the town.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Thu. 11 Feb 1904

Looking Back a Third of a Century

Rev. Clara Morgan [Universalist] was called to Livonia to officiate at the funeral of Flavius Coe.

Cohocton Valley Times, Cohocton NY, Wed. 17 Feb 1937

Transcribed on 6 Nov 2007 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY