

[Cole, Catherine Walrath]

MRS. CATHERINE WALRATH COLE

Mrs. Catherine Walrath Cole, wife of Lewis Cole, died at her home in Dow street, Richfield Springs, after a long illness, Sunday.

Mrs. Cole was born seventy-two years ago and had lived there many years. She was for years a member of the Universalist church and taught in its Sunday school, where she faithfully endeavored to exemplify the spirit of the Master. Her death is deeply mourned and those who knew her best feel that only in the memory of her good deeds is there consolation in her passing.

Mrs. Cole is survived by her husband, one sister, Mrs. James Cole, and a brother, David Walrath of Fulton. The funeral was held Tuesday at 1 p.m., and the Rev. L.[Lewis] H. Robinson, pastor of the Universalist church officiated. Burial was made in the family plot at Cedarville.—Our Richfield Springs Reporter.
