

[Cole, Dimmis McNinch]

Conesus

—Dimmis, widow of R. [Romeyn] W. Cole, who died on Tuesday of last week, had been in poor health for a long time. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick [and Rosella Stevens] McNinch and was born in this town in 1863, and had always resided here. She had a cheerful disposition and wore the smile of contentment almost to the last. She had many friends who will miss her cheery laugh at the social gatherings, where she was always one of the leaders in the amusement part of the programme. She was a sister of our townsman, S. [Scott] L. McNinch, and also of the late B. [Bert] S. McNinch. The funeral was held from the home the Thursday following at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Miss Clara Morgan [Universalist] officiating, and the interment was in the Arnold cemetery.
