

[Cole, Georgia Etta Clark]

MRS. GEORGIA ETTA COLE

Mrs. Georgia Etta Cole succumbed about 8 o'clock Sunday morning, Dec. 14, to a severe heart attack suffered Thursday evening in her home at 51 Covington street. She was 77 years old.

Mrs. Cole's maiden name was Georgia E. Clark. She was born in Perry June 9, 1864, one of two daughters of George and Louisa Clark. She attended the Perry school completing her education in 1881. On October 20 of that year she was united in marriage to Dr. Frederick H. Cole of this community. He was a dentist, and his death occurred January 26, 1924.

Mrs. Cole attended the Universalist Church and had been a member of the Mutual Friends since shortly after its organization. She was a woman of refined character, deeply devoted to home and its interests.

The only surviving relatives are a daughter, Mrs. Frank M. Crocker, and a nephew, Louis Brigham, both of Perry. An only sister, Mrs. Henry Brigham died during the past year.

The funeral service will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the home, with Rev. Julia B. Tobey officiating. Burial will be in Hope cemetery.
