

[Cole, Ruth]

Death of Mrs. Cole

Mrs. Ruth Cole, widow of the late Wellington Cole, died at her home at Columbian Springs, Monday, Jan. 23rd, from cancer from which disease she had been a terrible sufferer.

Deceased was 75 years old and for many years had been a resident of this vicinity. For some time past Mrs. Cole resided with her son, Edgar Pelton, who, with one sister who lives in Ohio, survive. The funeral was held from the Universalist church at Cedarville, Wednesday afternoon, where the interment was made. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. [Samuel] R. Ward of Richfield Springs. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Loomis of this village.

Ilion Citizen, Ilion NY, Fri. 27 Jan 1899

CEDARVILLE

Mrs. Wellington Cole died at her residence at Columbian Springs, Jan. 23, of cancer, at the age of 75 years. Committal services were held from the Universalist church here on Wednesday, the 25th, Rev. S. [Samuel] R. Ward officiating. Mrs. Cole was twice married, her first husband being Justin Pelton, formerly of this town; where she has many friends who will be pained to hear of her death. One son [Edgar Pelton] and one daughter are left to mourn the death of a kind and affectionate mother, and a large circle of friends extend to them their sincere sympathy in their affliction.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 9 Feb 1899