

[Coleman, Ida Cynthia Pierce]

MRS. IDA COLEMAN

The death of Mrs. Ida Coleman, widow of the late John Coleman, occurred at 9 o'clock Thursday morning of last week at her home on Brooklyn avenue as a result of the infirmities of advanced age. Her last illness covered a period of about six weeks.

Mrs. Coleman was the daughter of the late Orrin and Sabrina (Peake) Pierce, her maiden name having been Ida Cynthia Pierce. She was born in the town of Middlefield March 1, 1853, and she had made her home throughout her entire life in that vicinity. She was a life-long member of the Universalist church and a woman held in high esteem for many fine qualities of mind and heart.

Mrs. Coleman was united in marriage with John Coleman of this village September 2, 1871. His death occurred December 8, 1923. Surviving are two sons, DeWitt C. Coleman and J. Pierce Coleman, both of Bowerstown; one sister, Mrs. Ira Hanor, of Bowerstown, and three grandchildren, Mrs. Charles E. Foutch of Oneonta, Harris Clark of Whig Corners and Howard Coleman of Rolla, Mo., together with several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held at the home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Charles Kramer, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. Burial was made in Lakewood cemetery.
