MISS MARION COLEMAN

Schuyler Lake—Miss Marion Coleman, a life resident of this locality, died June 20, 1942 at the home of her niece, Mrs. Lynn Perkins, in Luzerne, where she went last fall to be cared for.

Miss Coleman had suffered several strokes and had been helpless for several months.

She was a daughter of Morell and Helen Curtis Coleman and was born Nov. 11, 1858. She also was a member of the Schuyler Lake Universalist Church and Aid Society and for years was a teacher in the Sunday school.

She leaves, besides the niece mentioned, one other niece, Mrs. Daniel Williams of Unadilla, and one nephew, George Coleman of Binghamton, also several cousins.

The funeral was held in the Schuyler Lake Universalist Church Tuesday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Mr. [Howard] Gilman officiated. Burial was in the family plot in the village cemetery.
