

[Collins, May Compton]

MRS. MAY COLLINS

Mrs. May Compton Collins, widow of Leo E. Collins, formerly of the Middleport-Medina area, died August 21, 1968 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William A. MacDonald on George Street.

Mrs. Collins had made her home there for several years. During that time she served as a board member for the Mumford library and enjoyed membership in the Scottsville Book Club.

Community activity was a well established habit with Mrs. Collins. She had served as president of the State Parent-Teachers Association and vice president of the Western New York Federation of Women's Clubs. She was a founder of the Lindenville Library, a life member of the Middleport Study Club and also belonged to the Medina Tuesday Club. She was also a life member of the Middleport Universalist Church.

A private funeral service was held on Saturday at the Wallace and Heath Funeral Home in Middleport with burial in the Royalton Mt. Ridge Cemetery.

Caledonia Advertiser, Caledonia NY, Thu. 29 Aug 1968

Transcribed on 24 Oct 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY