

[Conklin, Abigail]

BRIDGEWATER

—At the Old Ladies' Home in Utica last Thursday morning occurred the death of Mrs. A. H. Conklin. For more than thirty years she was a resident of this town. She was a woman of many Christian virtues and the trials and tribulations of life were borne by her with meekness and submission. She was nearly 78 years of age, a member of the Universalist church and an earnest worker therein. Her remains were brought to Fair Lawn for interment beside her husband and parents.

Brookfield Courier, Brookfield NY, Wed. 2 Sep 1914

Transcribed on 10 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY