

[Cook, Ada Campbell]

MRS. ADA COOK

Mrs. Ada Cook, 76, widow of Eli Cook, died yesterday morning at the home of her son, Jay C. Cook, Willett street. Mrs. Cook had been in failing health for some time past, the result of a stroke sustained several years ago.

She was born in Canajoharie August 13, 1859, a daughter of Daniel and Mary M. Nihoff Campbell. Mrs. Cook was a resident of Fort Plain for the past 45 years. She was a member of the Fort Plain American Legion Auxiliary and Universalist church. She is survived by two sons, Jay of Fort Plain and Harry M. Cook, New York; one daughter, Miss Florence H. Cook, Fort Plain.

The funeral will be held Monday at 2:30 P.M. from the home of her son, Rev. Gustave Ulrich officiating. Interment will be made in the Fort Plain cemetery.
