

[Cook, Anna W. Baldwin]

Death of Mrs. Anna B. Cook
Widow of Former No. 3 School Principal and Once Teacher

The funeral of Mrs. Anna B. Cook took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her son, Dr. E. B. Cook, No. 320 Monroe avenue. The Rev. Dr. A. W. Grose, pastor of the First Universalist Church, officiated. Interment was at Mount Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Cook had made her home in this city the greater part of her life, and was active in the work of the First Universalist Church. She was born in Riga and came to this city, where she was a teacher in the public schools. Soon afterward she married James M. Cook, who was for years principal of No. 3 school, Tremont street, and who died several years ago [on 2 Aug 1905].

Of late years Mrs. Cook had lived with her oldest son, James M. Cook, at Johnstown, Pa. She was visiting here when taken ill and her death was sudden. She leaves, besides her two sons, two brothers, Warner Baldwin of Watervliet, Mich., and Chauncey Baldwin of Osborn, Kan.
