

[Cook, Asenath]

DEATHS

In Palermo, Oswego co., N.Y., July 25, Mrs. ASENATH COOK, aged 78 years. The subject of this notice was one of the first settlers of the town of Pompey [in Onondaga County]. She had been a Universalist for the greater portion of her life, and she exemplified in her devoted christian deportment the beauty and holiness of the faith she cherished. Universally beloved and esteemed, her memory will ever be sacred to those who knew her. For several years past, the infirmities of age had lain heavily upon her, yet she constantly experienced the reward of a faithful mother, in the kind and constant ministrations of her children, until at last, like a shock of corn fully ripe, she was gathered home to the heavenly garner. May the infinite Father guide the remaining family in the paths of peace and righteousness. Her funeral was attended in the church at Oran, on Sabbath, the 27th July.

A. C.

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 4 Oct 1856
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 11 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY