Former Resident of Middleport Dies in West

MIDDLEPORT—Mrs. Eva Cook, 82, widow of Frank Cook, formerly of Orchard Street, died Friday (June 1, 1962) at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zola York, Torrence, Calif., following a long illness.

Mrs. Cook was born August 31, 1880, in Jeddo, Orleans County, the daughter of Harley and Mary Warren. She lived on County Line Road before moving to Middleport in 1917. She was a member of the First Universalist church in Middleport for over 40 years and of the Ladies Mission Circle of that Church.

She was a former member of Purity Rebekah Lodge, Middleport, and later of Home Rebekah Lodge in Gasport. She had lived with her daughter in California for the past three years.

Surviving are two sons, Leslie and Robert Thaxter of Middleport; three daughters, Mrs. Fred Waters, Mrs. Harold Johnson, both of Middleport, and Mrs. York; 15 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and a great-great-granddaughter; a sister, Mrs. Howard Underhill of Middleport; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services were held in the First Universalist Church, Middleport, Sunday, with all of the relatives from this vicinity and many friends attending.

Services were being held today in California with burial in Harvory Rest Costa Meca Cemetery, Garden Grove, Calif.
