

[Cook, Maria]

DEATHS.

In Geneva, Ontario county, on December 21st, Miss MARIA COOK, aged nearly 57 years. Our deceased sister was formerly well known in this region as an able and exemplary preacher of universal salvation; and lately she resumed her public labors, but for a short time, in this vicinity, where she then lived. Infirmities of mind and body admonished her that her end was nigh, and she ceased her labors; but Br. [Jacob] Chase of the Herald of Truth, says, "we have reason to believe that she died as she had lived, a faithful and exemplary believer in God's impartial grace." She has left many manuscripts on theological subjects behind her—whether they will ever be published is doubtful.

Her many virtues will long be remembered by her friends, who will drop the kindly tear to her memory.
